

Professional Speakers and Trainers

Speaker Topics – Informative

COMMUNICATION IN A WORLD THAT IS NOT LISTENING

Visit Speaker - Gary Grooms

In business and social settings, do people listen to what you say and take action or are you just part of the background noise? When Master Gary Grooms, an internationally recognized Shaolin Master and successful business executive speaks, people listen. Learn how to bring order and success into a confused or chaotic business, social, educational and even family situation with Master Gary's training in practical, understandable and timely communication skills.

DIVERSITY: THE FUTURE IS HERE!

Visit Speaker - Pearl Rovaris MacDonald

This dynamic and humorous presentation leaves the audience with an understanding of the different world views and their current effect on business. They learn how to recognize their own style of communication as well as the style of others, and in so doing, they learn how not to be judgmental of each other.

FACIAL REJUVENATION

Visit Speaker - Ellen Vaughn

Inner Health, Outer Beauty

Facial rejuvenation combines the Eastern Traditions of health and beauty with modern methods to prevent the signs of aging. See how our expression is a reflection of our attitudes and inner balance. This presentation provides tools such as acu-pressure massage, facial exercise, and shares the importance of nourishing foods and hormone balance as a necessary component for addressing the aging process from within.

FINDING YOUR WAY TO FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Visit Speaker - Sean Todd

Does it seem like everyone else has more money than you do? Financial independence does not happen by chance, but it can happen to you. Learn the habits of the rich and start on your journey to financial independence.

TALKING WITH THE ANIMALS

Visit Speaker - Joan Ranquet

World renowned animal communicator discusses her conversations with animals through telepathic communication. This presentation is filled with fun and touching true stories which she has experienced through her animal communication. As humans become more aware of the "feelings" of their animals, the animals bring an awareness of how humans can live more in their hearts.

Cont.

TAX FREE WEALTH

Visit Speaker - Sean Todd

Real estate investors – tap your 401(K) IRA savings for investment capital without taking a taxable distribution. Learn how in this informative one hour presentation with valuable facts provided from current, successful real estate investors.

FROM VICTIM TO VOLUNTEER

Visit Speaker - Joan Ranquet

After having been the victim of a heinous crime, an attempted murder while she was sleeping, Joan Ranquet had a two year struggle with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. She navigated through the court system, watching the press distort the story, and working on forgiveness with her stepson, her would be “murderer”. Joan tells a compelling story of staying in her own truth no matter what was being presented around her.

Speaker Topics - Instructional

COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Visit Speaker - Pearl Rovaris MacDonald

This presentation will give you the skills to interact with others more effectively. Learn how to listen and to communicate more creatively, compassionately and successfully. Pearl's humorous presentation will teach the participants both verbal and non-verbal communication and listening skills.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION

Visit Speaker - Pearl Rovaris MacDonald

People have different perspectives on subjects. This presentation will show you how to view the other person's perspective and how to understand it. If you can understand their perspective, it is much easier to resolve a problem. Pearl's humorous talk will show you how to spot different personality styles, how to deal with difficult people without getting angry, and how to give and receive feedback.

EAST MEETS WEST

Visit Speaker - Gary Grooms

The backbone of America, today's office worker, is experiencing more frequent aches and pains commonly caused by computer work or other seemingly harmless tasks. Much of this can be relieved with simple breathing, stretching and isometric techniques performed at your desk for one or two minutes each hour. Learn how some basic physical conditioning can ultimately improve your overall health and productivity.

QUIT JUGGLING AND START BALANCING

Visit Speaker - Gary Grooms

With more time each day to accomplish your TO DO list, would it get done? Most people would simply have a longer list. What they really need are tools to discover their own self-discipline and efficiency. This is not your typical time management class. Discover practical ways to draw upon your inner strengths to prioritize, differentiate between efficiency and organization, quickly adapt to changes in plans, make commitments, and not only find the motivation – but maintain it to accomplish goals.

TEAMBUILDING AND COACHING

Visit Speaker - Pearl Rovaris MacDonald

What does it take to be a good coach? How do you build a winning team? Learn the skills necessary to change the behavior of others by changing your own, to improve morale, to build enthusiasm, to recognize the problem player, and to build a team of committed employees.

YOU'RE THE PROBLEM!

Visit Speaker - John Madden

How to Handle Difficult People Through Improved Interpersonal Skills. Learn your behavioral style and that of others, and discover why you see others as difficult instead of different. See how you can adapt your behavior to make a huge difference in your job success through better relationships with co-workers, subordinates, and your boss; and better social relationships with relatives, friends and acquaintances. See your success accelerate almost immediately as you practice these simple techniques.

Speaker Topics - Motivational/Inspirational

AMERICANS WHO MADE AMERICA GREAT

Visit Speaker – Jonathan Neal

Jonathan Neal combines his vast knowledge of history with the rhythm of a storyteller and the delivery of a seasoned professional speaker to entertain you with a powerful inspirational and motivational performance. He looks back on some of America's greatest business people and explores their personalities and philosophies.

For example: John Astor - we learn to appreciate talent.

Andrew Carnegie and John D. Rockefeller - we learn the benefits that come from paying close attention to details.

Robert Woodford - shows us that positioning yourself and your product is more important than the product itself. Mary

Kay - tells us the only limits we need to live with are set by ourselves. Ray Kroc - teaches us the power of focus.

This unique and heartwarming presentation will leave the audience understanding that failure is just another part of success and that one can never go wrong by investing in America.

HUMOR IN YOUR LIFE AND WORK

Visit Speaker – Pearl Rovaris MacDonald

When I came to a fork in the road, I picked it up and started searching for a chocolate cream pie. Let's face it – most of us walk around wearing our failures and disgust as a badge of honor. Life is about choices and events. In this seminar discover how to see the lighter side of this journey.

IF YOU CAN CHANGE YOUR UNDERWEAR, YOU CAN CHANGE YOUR ATTITUDE

Visit Speaker - Mark Hood

Everyone has an attitude. Some are optimistic, some are pessimistic, while others are neutral. We all must take responsibility for the types of attitudes we bring to individual situations. Ultimately, attitude is an inside job. In this program, you will learn the key components of individual responsibility, personal choice and healthy personalities.

IN SEARCH OF OPTIMISM

Visit Speaker - Mark Hood

Overall optimism and happiness come from a combination of your genetic set level, circumstances you are living through, and the variable under your control. Those who are the most optimistic are able to focus on those strengths that they can control and rise above all the external factors. Viktor Frankl stated this reality perfectly in the statement, "The last of our human freedoms is to choose our attitude in any circumstance." Our strengths and the factors under our control, leading one to greater optimism, will be highlighted in this presentation.

LAUGHTER IS GOOD MEDICINE

Visit Speaker - Mark Hood

We're all born stress free, humorous and programmed for success – then THINGS GET WORSE! Life becomes more stressful, laughter becomes restrained and success is always the other person. From Laughter is Good Medicine, you will learn what advanced studies reveal about stress resistance, the benefits of laughter and developing a healthy attitude towards life. Come prepared to learn, laugh and live more fully.

LET'S TALK ETHICS

Visit Speaker - Jonathan Neal

This is the one hour speech taken from Jonathan Neal's famous three hour seminar, Professional Ethics. In this shortened version, he not only creates passion, excitement, and energy within the audience, but leaves them thinking about and re-evaluating their answers to some straight forward questions. This is far and away the NUMBER ONE TALK in America today. The topic is relevant, the content is thought provoking, and the presentation is dynamic.

LIFE MANAGEMENT

Visit Speaker - Mark Hood

Stress management focuses on our ability to take a proactive approach in responding to the many stressors we face each day. The research presented in this session examines the characteristics of stress resilient personalities, the mind-body connection and what we can do to improve our overall stress resistance resources.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, REACTION

Visit Speaker - Pearl Rovaris MacDonald

Since life is not a dress rehearsal, discover how to enjoy and energize yourself without waiting for permission. Learn to see the lighter side of reality and start your day with fun and direction.

PERCEPTION IS REALLY REALITY

Visit Speaker - Jonathan Neal

This is a humorous, yet eye-opening look at the "pep talk" slogans, phrases, and clichés used in the world of sales that have a negative rather than the intended positive effect.

PULL YOURSELF TOGETHER!

Visit Speaker - John Madden

Getting Control of Your Time and Your Life

How to drag yourself away from the "unimportant"; how to spend a lot less time on the "urgent"; how to procrastinate effectively; when to say "no!"; how to save serious money by running more productive, shorter meetings; and how to win the paperwork war. Learn techniques of intelligent planning; how to get more of your own work done than that of other people, and how to manage the inevitable stress in a fast-paced world that's moving faster.

RACING FOR RECOVERY

Visit Speaker – Todd Crandell

Preventing Substance Abuse and Providing Positive Alternatives

In this moving presentation, Todd Crandell tells the riveting story of his fall and rise, and his struggle for sobriety from birth to the present day. He covers his upbringing in a middle class environment, the suicides of his mother and uncle, his descent into the abyss of drug and alcohol addiction, contemplation of his own suicide, and finally his climb to independence by finding a lifestyle of fitness and health.

SELF ESTEEM AND GOAL SETTING

Visit Speaker - Pearl Rovaris MacDonald

High self esteem – it's not just for school kids anymore. In this rapidly changing world, the ability to stay true to yourself can be tough. Maintaining your self respect and achieving your self-selected goals are both necessary for strong mental health. Come discover how to build the life you want to live.

STRESS DOWN WITH HUMOR

Visit Speaker - John Madden

How to Manage and Control Daily Stress with Humor. In today's radically changing world, everything is moving faster; work demands are greater; and being stressed-out is, for many, a way of life. It doesn't have to be! Learn how to be more successful by incorporating laughter and humor in your business. See problems and situations with a different perspective, enhance your communications with others, and accelerate your own success by injecting humor everywhere you can.

THE HALLMARKS OF SUCCESS

Visit Speaker – Mark Hood

Have you ever asked yourself, "What are the keys to success?" People view success in many different ways. Based on research with a variety of accomplished people, you will get insights into common traits among successful people as well as clues as to how some people stifle, suppress, or self-sabotage their own potential.

WHAT WOULD BUFFALO BILL DO?

Visit Speaker – Jonathan Neal

If you are looking for a powerful motivation message dressed up in humor, wit, and charm - THIS IS IT!

Drawing on the legend of one of America's true heroes, Jonathan brings to life the story of William (Buffalo Billy) Cody. While most people have a vague idea about Buffalo Bill, mostly by way of the Wild West Show, Jonathan brings the realities of Cody's numerous successes and failures to life. As the audience learns more about how Buffalo Billy consistently picked himself up after failure to remake himself time and again, they start to relate to this American icon.

With Buffalo Bill as a foundation, Jonathan combines wit, charm and humor in his fast paced delivery style to interject the challenges we all face in today's world. The power in this program is that it stimulates everyone differently; everyone takes away a positive message generated from within and personal to themselves.

YOU'RE IN CHARGE!

Visit Speaker - John Madden

Coaching for High Performance and Longevity.

How to increase productivity, improve morale, retain top performers, and guarantee results through energetic, committed employees . See how you can change employee attitudes, create a positive environment for employees to shine and excel, reduce unnecessary turnover, absenteeism, and difficult behavior toward customers or co-workers. Learn how to "connect" with your employees.